FOREIGN SECURITIES RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Foreign securities are subject to the laws and regulations of the jurisdiction it is listed in. Before the Applicant/ Client ("We/us") trade in foreign securities or authorise someone else to trade for us, we shall be aware of the risks that may affect the value of our investment.

1. This statement is provided to us in accordance with Rules of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad.
2. This statement does not disclose all the risks and other significant aspects of trading in foreign securities. We shall undertake such transactions only if we understand and am comfortable with the extent of our exposure to the risks.
3. We shall carefully consider whether such trading is suitable for us in light of our experience, objectives, risk appetite, financial resources and other relevant circumstances. In considering whether to trade or to authorise someone else to trade for us, we shall be aware of the following:
 - (a) Foreign markets may be subject to different regulations, and may operate differently from Bursa Exchange in Malaysia. For example, there may be different rules providing for the safekeeping of securities and monies held by custodian banks or depositories. This may affect the level of safeguards in place to ensure proper segregation and safekeeping of our investment products or monies held in foreign countries. There is also the risk of our investment products or monies not being protected if the custodian has credit problems or fails. Foreign markets may also have different periods for clearing and settling transactions. These may affect the information available to us regarding transaction prices and the time we have to settle our trade on such foreign markets. These may affect the information available to us regarding transaction prices and the time we have to settle our trade on such foreign markets.
 - (b) Foreign markets may be subject to rules which may offer different investor protection as compared to Malaysia. Before we start to trade, we shall be fully aware of the types of redress available to us in Malaysia and other relevant jurisdictions, if any.
 - (c) Foreign securities may not be subject to the same disclosure standards that apply to investment products listed for quotation or quoted on Bursa Exchange in Malaysia. Where disclosure is made, differences in accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards may also affect the quality and comparability of information provided. It may also be more difficult to locate up-to-date information, and the information published may only be available in a foreign language.
 - (d) In some countries, legal concepts which are practiced in mature legal systems may not be in place or may have yet to be tested in courts. This would make it more difficult to predict with a degree of certainty the outcome of judicial proceedings or even the quantum of damages which may be awarded following a successful claim.
 - (e) The Ministry of Finance in Malaysia may be unable to compel the enforcement of the rules of the regulatory authorities or markets in other jurisdictions where our transactions shall be effected.
 - (f) The laws of some jurisdictions may prohibit or restrict the repatriation of funds from such jurisdictions including capital, divestment proceeds, profits, dividends and interest/return arising from investment in such countries. Therefore, there is no guarantee that the funds we have invested and the funds arising from our investment shall be capable of being remitted.
 - (g) Some jurisdictions may also restrict the amount or type of investment products that foreign investors may trade. This can affect the liquidity and prices of the foreign securities that we invest in.
 - (h) There may be tax implications of investing in foreign securities. For example, sale proceeds or the receipt of any dividends and other income may be subject to tax levies, duties or charges in the foreign country, in Malaysia or in both countries.
 - (i) My investment return on foreign currency-denominated securities may be affected by exchange rate fluctuations where there is a need to convert from the currency of denomination of the investment products to another currency, or may be affected by exchange controls.
 - (j) We may have to pay additional costs such as fees and broker's commissions for transactions in foreign exchanges. In some jurisdictions, we may also have to pay a premium to trade certain listed foreign securities. Therefore, before we begin to trade, we shall obtain a clear explanation of all commissions, fees and other charges for which we shall be liable. These charges shall affect our net profit (if any) or increase our loss.

- (k) Transactions on foreign exchanges or foreign markets are generally effected by the Malaysian Broker through the use of foreign brokers who have trading and/or clearing rights on those exchanges. All transactions that are executed upon our instructions with such counterparties and correspondent brokers are dependent on their respective due performance of their obligations. The insolvency or default of such counterparties and correspondent brokers may lead to positions being liquidated or closed out without our consent and/or may result in difficulties in recovering our monies and assets held foreign countries.
- (l) Foreign markets are influenced by the political, economic and social developments in the foreign jurisdiction, which may be uncertain and may increase the risk of investing in foreign securities.

2. The purpose of this statement is to inform us that the risk of loss in purchasing structured warrants can be substantial. We should therefore assess if the purchase of structured warrants is suitable for us in light of our financial circumstances. In deciding whether to purchase structured warrant, we should be aware of the following :

 - the high degree of leverage that is obtainable from structured warrant because the small initial outlay can work against or for us. The use of leverage can lead to large losses as well as gain.
3. This brief statement cannot disclose all the risks and other aspects of purchasing structured warrants. We should therefore carefully study the terms and conditions of any structured warrant before we decide to purchase. If we are in doubt in relation to any aspect of this statement or the terms of a structured warrant, we should consult our Dealers Representative.

Hence, we should be aware that there is a higher risk of business failures which may adversely impact our investments should we choose to invest.
 - (ii) Minimum Requirements on Disclosure and Governance
The LEAP Market has a regulatory framework on disclosure and post-listing requirements appropriate for sophisticated investors only. This framework may be less prescriptive than that in the ACE Market or Main Market. The listed companies on the LEAP Market are required to provide only key information about its business plan, operations and financial information. This may affect our ability to make fully informed investment decisions.

We may not be able to exit our investment as easily as in the ACE Market or Main Market. We should independently evaluate our own financial position, risk tolerance and investment experiences while taking into account the following risk factors before engaging in Intraday Short Selling:
4. Types of risk:
 - A. Investment risk: we should assess the investment risks arising from price fluctuation if we choose to engage in Intraday Short Selling. 17 RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT ON SECURITIES BORROWING (NOT APPLICABLE FOR ISLAMIC STOCKBROKING)

- This statement is provided to us in accordance with Rule 7.18(4)(d) of these Rules.
- The purpose of this statement is to inform us that the risk of loss in borrowing securities for the purposes permitted under these Rules can be substantial. we should assess if borrowing securities is suitable for us in light of our own financial circumstances. In deciding whether to borrow securities we should be aware of the following:
 - where the redelivery of securities to the lender, which securities is equivalent to the securities borrowed, is by way of purchase on the market, the buy price of the securities may be substantially higher than the price of the securities at the time of borrowing;
 - under certain conditions, it may be difficult to buy back securities equivalent to the [securities borrowed];
 - the [lender may recall the securities at any time which necessitates the buying back of securities equivalent to the securities borrowed; and
 - the securities borrowed may no longer be eligible for borrowing in the future and as such the lender may recall on all of that securities borrowed by all borrowers which may necessitate the buying back of the securities equivalent to that [securities borrowed, by all borrowers. This 'buying back' may result in the buy price of those securities going up significantly.

This brief statement cannot disclose all the risks and other aspects of borrowing of securities. we should therefore carefully study the terms, conditions, the rules and regulations pertaining to [borrowing of securities before engaging in this activity. If we are in doubt in relation to any aspect of this statement, we should consult our dealer's representative.

18 LEVERAGED AND INVERSE EXCHANGE TRADED FUNDS RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

- This statement is provided to the Applicant ("We/us") in accordance with the directives of the Rules of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad.
- The purpose of this statement is to inform us that the risk of loss in purchasing leveraged and inverse Exchange Traded Funds ("L&I ETFs") units can be substantial. We should assess if the purchase of L&I ETFs units is suitable for us in light of our financial position, risk tolerance and investment experience while taking into account the following risks before deciding whether to invest in L&I ETFs:
 - We are subject to the risk of losing the full purchase price of the L&I ETFs units;
 - We should keep in mind that L&I ETFs are intended to track and replicate up to a multiple of performance of an index or a multiple of the inverse performance of an index on a daily basis;
 - As such, L&I ETFs are more suitable for short term trading/ positioning. Holding L&I ETFs units for more than a day could result in investment returns that deviate greatly from the multiple of performance of an index or a multiple of the inverse performance of an index that the L&I ETFs are supposed to track;

We understand that an Index 2x Leveraged ETF does not necessarily give us twice the return of the Underlying Index which is illustrated in the following 3 scenarios:

Scenario 1:

5 days cumulative return comparison, index increases by 10% daily.

End of Day	Daily Index Movement	Investment Amount (RM)
		Underlying Index	2X Underlying Index	Index 2x Leveraged ETF
0	NA	100.00	100.00	100.00
1	10%	110.00	120.00	120.00
2	10%	121.00	142.00	144.00
3	10%	133.10	166.20	172.80
4	10%	146.41	192.82	207.36
5	10%	161.05	222.10	248.83
Cumulative Return		61%	122%	149%

2X Underlying Index cumulative return is 122% while Index 2x Leveraged ETF cumulative return over the same period is 149%.

Scenario 2:

5 days cumulative return comparison, index decreases by 10% daily.

		Investment Amount (RM)
End of Day	Daily Index Movement	Underlying Index	2X Underlying Index	Index 2x Leveraged ETF
0	NA	100.00	100.00	100.00
1	-10%	90.00	80.00	80.00
2	-10%	81.00	62.00	64.00
3	-10%	72.90	45.80	51.20
4	-10%	65.61	31.22	40.96
5	-10%	59.05	18.10	32.77
Cumulative Return		-41%	-82%	-67%

2X Underlying Index cumulative return is -82% while Index 2x Leveraged ETF cumulative return over the same period is -67%.

Scenario 3:

5 days cumulative return comparison, index increases and decreases by 10% alternatingly.

		Investment Amount
End of Day	Daily Index Movement	Underlying Index	2X Underlying Index	Index 2x Leveraged ETF
0	NA	100.00	100.00	100.00
1	10%	110.00	120.00	120.00
2	-10%	99.00	98.00	96.00
3	10%	108.90	117.80	115.20
4	-10%	98.01	96.02	92.16
5	10%	107.81	115.62	110.59
Cumulative Return		8%	16%	11%

2X Underlying Index cumulative return is 16% while Index 2x Leveraged ETF cumulative return over the same period is 11%.

Similarly, an Index (-1x) Inverse ETF will not give us the opposite of the cumulative return of the Underlying Index over a longer period:

Scenario 1:

5 days cumulative return comparison, index increases by 10% daily.

		Investment Amount (RM)
End of Day	Daily Index Movement	Underlying Index	(-1)X Underlying Index	Index (-1x) Inverse ETF
0	NA	100.00	100.00	100.00
1	10%	110.00	90.00	90.00
2	10%	121.00	79.00	81.00

Cumulative Return		61%	-61%	-41%

(-1)X Underlying Index cumulative return is -61% while Index (-1x) Inverse ETF cumulative return over the same period is -41%.

Scenario 2:

5 days cumulative return comparison, index decreases by 10% daily.

		Investment Amount (RM)
End of Day	Daily Index Movement	Underlying Index	(-1)X Underlying Index	Index (-1x) Inverse ETF
0	NA	100.00	100.00	100.00
1	-10%	90.00	110.00	110.00
2	-10%	81.00	119.00	121.00
3	-10%	72.90	127.10	133.10
4	-10%	65.61	134.39	146.41
5	-10%	59.05	140.95	161.05
Cumulative Return		-41%	41%	61%

(-1)X Underlying Index cumulative return is 41% while Index (-1x) Inverse ETF cumulative return over same period is 61%.

Scenario 3:

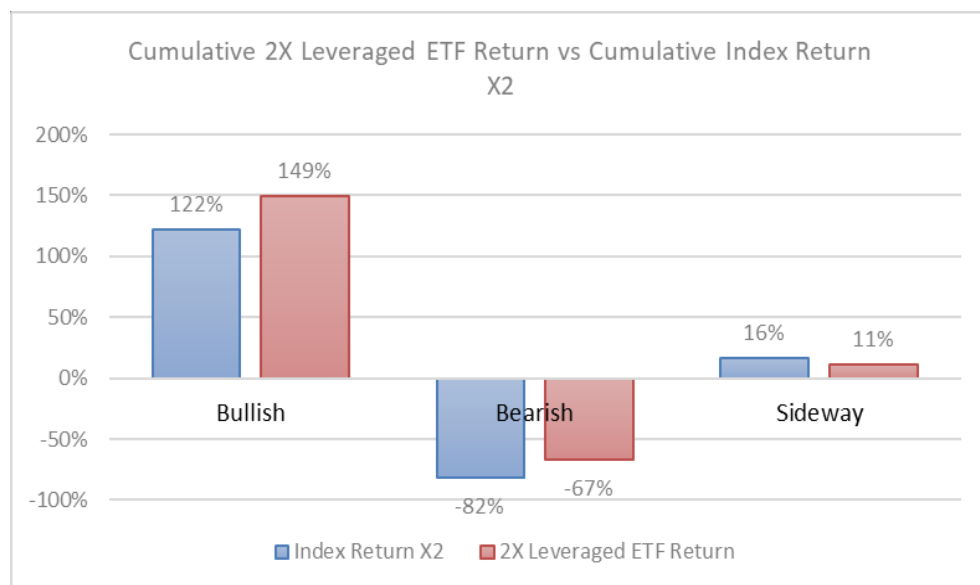

5 days cumulative return comparison, index increases and decreases by 10% alternatingly.

		Investment Amount (RM)
End of Day	Daily Index Movement	Underlying Index	(-1)X Underlying Index	Index (-1x) Inverse ETF
0	NA	100.00	100.00	100.00
1	10%	110.00	90.00	90.00
2	-10%	99.00	101.00	99.00
3	10%	108.90	91.10	89.10
4	-10%	98.01	101.99	98.01
5	10%	107.81	92.19	88.21
Cumulative Return		8%	-8%	-12%

(-1)X Underlying Index cumulative return is -8% while Index (-1x) Inverse ETF cumulative return over the same period is -12%.

In summary, we understand the compounding effect could potentially lead to deviations in cumulative returns between a leveraged ETF or inverse ETF with the corresponding multiples (2X for 2X leveraged ETF and -1X for Inverse ETF) of the underlying index's cumulative return.

From the charts below, such deviation could at times benefit us. For example, in a trending market where market valuation is trending upwards or downwards, we tend to benefit from compounding effect either by gaining higher returns or suffering less losses. However, in a volatile sideways market, the compounding effect is likely to put us at a disadvantage, either causing us to earn less returns or inflicting greater losses as compared to a multiple of the underlying index's cumulative return.

Disclaimer: the scenarios presented above are solely for illustration purposes only and does not take into account the impact of other factors (such as but not limited to management fees) on a fund's performances. Actual performances of L&I ETF units with respect to their Underlying Indices might differ under similar scenarios.

- (iv). Placing of contingent orders, such as “stop-loss” or “stop-limit” orders, will not necessarily limit our losses to the intended amount. Market conditions may not make it possible to execute such orders;
 - (v). The leverage obtained from a leveraged ETF can work against us as well as for us. It could lead to large losses as well as gains;
 - (vi). It is in our best interests to take effort to study all risks as contained in the prospectus of the L&I ETFs, including but not limited to interest rate risks, country risks, credit risks, foreign exchange risks, futures rollover risks, counterparty risks and liquidity risks; and
 - (vii). If we engage in purchase of L&I ETF units using margin financing or short sale of L&I ETF units, we may gain higher profits when the price movement conforms to expectations, or may otherwise suffer bigger losses. We may also face a margin call by the lender if the collateral maintenance ratio drops.
3. This brief statement cannot disclose all the risks and other aspects of purchasing L&I ETF units. We should carefully study the requirements pertaining to L&I ETFs and the content of the prospectus of L&I ETFs before we decide to purchase. If we are in doubt in relation to any aspect of this statement or the terms of L&I ETFs, we should consult our dealer's representative.

By executing this Agreement in the space indicated below, we ("Subscriber") agree to comply with those terms and conditions. Section 1 sets forth terms and conditions of general applicability. Section 2 sets forth the special provisions of which apply insofar as Subscriber receives and uses Market Data made available pursuant to this Agreement as a Professional Subscriber.

SECTION 1: TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF GENERAL APPLICABILITY

1. DEFINITIONS

- (a) "Authorizing SRO" means each of the authorizing self-regulatory organizations (i.e., each CTA Plan Participant, each CQ Plan Participant and NYSE).
 - (b) "Interrogation," as used to differentiate devices and displays, refers to (i) displaying Market Data for a security in response to Subscriber's specific inquiries or (ii) displaying changes in Market Data as they occur for a limited number of securities specified by Subscriber.

Stock and bond last sale prices and information deriving from those prices cease to be "Market Data" 15 minutes after the Authorizing SRO(s) make the prices available over their low speed data transmission facilities. NYSE may alter such period from time to time on 60 days' written notice to Subscriber.
 - (d) "NYSE Securities Information" means the Types of Market Data enumerated or referred to in clauses (iii)- (iv) of Paragraph 1(c).

 - (j) "Type of Market Data" means the Market Data in any of the categories enumerated or referred to in Paragraph 1(c).
2. PROPRIETARY NATURE OF DATA-Each Authorizing SRO asserts a proprietary interest in its "Relevant Market Data" (i.e., the Market Data that it furnishes to the Processor and in case of NYSE, that it otherwise makes available).
3. NYSE CAPACITY; ENFORCEMENT-Whenever this Agreement requires "NYSE" to take any action, or to receive any payment, information or notice, as to any Type of Market Data, NYSE acts on behalf of the Authorizing SRO(s) for the Type of Market Data. Any Authorizing SRO may enforce this Agreement as to its Relevant Market Data, by legal proceeding or otherwise, against Subscriber and may likewise proceed against any person that obtains its Relevant Market Data other than as this Agreement contemplates. Subscriber shall pay the reasonable attorneys' fees that any Authorizing SRO incurs in enforcing this Agreement against Subscriber.

Subscriber shall pay invoices promptly upon receipt. Errors in and omissions from invoices, and errors or delays in sending, or failures to send or receive, invoices, do not relieve Subscriber of its payment obligations.

(d) EQUIPMENT SECURITY-Subscriber understands that this Paragraph 5 requires Subscriber to carefully locate and protect Subscriber Equipment. Subscriber shall abide by any written requirements that NYSE specifies to regulate the location or connection of Subscriber Equipment or to otherwise assure compliance with this Paragraph 5. (e) INSPECTION-At any reasonable time, Subscriber shall assure that authorized representatives of NYSE have access to the premises at which Subscriber Equipment is located, and, in the presence of Subscriber's officials, the rights to examine the equipment and to observe Subscriber's use of the equipment.

6. DATA NOT GUARANTEED-Neither NYSE, any other Authorizing SRO nor the Processor (the "disseminating parties") guarantees the timeliness, sequence, accuracy or completeness of Market Data or of other market information or messages disseminated by any disseminating party. No disseminating party shall be liable in any way to Subscriber or to any other person for (a) any inaccuracy, error or delay in, or omission of, (i) any such data, information or message, or (ii) the transmission or delivery of any such data, information or message, or (b) any loss or damage arising from or occasioned by (i) any such inaccuracy, error, delay or omission (ii) of nonperformance, or (iii) interruption in any such data, information or message, due either to any negligent act or omission by any disseminating party or to any "force majeure" (i.e., flood, extraordinary weather conditions, earthquake or other act of God, fire, war, insurrection, riot, labor dispute, accident, action of government, communications or power failure, equipment or software malfunction) or any other cause beyond the reasonable control of any disseminating party.

7. DISSEMINATION DISCONTINUANCE OR MODIFICATION-The Authorizing SROs may discontinue disseminating any Type of Market Data, may change or eliminate any transmission method and may change transmission speeds or other signal characteristics. The Authorizing SROs shall not be liable for any resulting liability, loss or damages to Subscriber.

8. DURATION; SURVIVAL-Subject to Paragraph 7, either Subscriber or NYSE may terminate this Agreement on 30 days' written notice to the other. In addition, this Agreement terminates 90 days after Subscriber no longer has the ability to receive Market Data as contemplated by this Agreement. Withdrawal of an Authorizing SRO other than NYSE from the CTA Plan and the CQ Plan terminates this Agreement solely as to that Authorizing SRO. Withdrawal of NYSE from the CTA Plan and CQ Plan terminates this Agreement as to all other Authorizing SROs. Paragraphs 3, 5(d), 6, 15(c), 15(e) and 16(e) survive termination of this Agreement.

9. ENTIRE AGREEMENT; MODIFICATIONS-This writing contains the entire agreement between the parties in respect of its subject matter. This Agreement supersedes each previous agreement between Subscriber and NYSE pursuant to which Subscriber has been receiving Market Data except insofar as the earlier agreement covers receipt of Market Data through direct or indirect access to the high speed line described in the CTA Plan or the CQ Plan or any comparable high speed transmission facility that NYSE uses to make NYSE Securities Information available. The parties may only modify this Agreement by a writing signed by or on behalf of each of them.

10. ASSIGNMENTS-Subscriber may not assign all or part of this Agreement without the written consent of NYSE.

11. GOVERNING LAW; CONSTRUCTION-The laws of the State of New York govern this Agreement. It shall be interpreted in accordance with those laws. In prohibiting Subscriber from doing any act, this Agreement also prohibits Subscriber from doing the act indirectly (e.g., by causing or permitting any other person to do the act).

12. APPLICABILITY OF 1934 ACT AND PLANS-This Agreement is subject to the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, the rules under that act, the CTA Plan (as to CTA Network A last sale information) and the CQ Plan (as to CQ Network A quotation information).

13. NOTICES; NOTIFICATION OF CHANGES-The parties shall send communications relating to this Agreement to:

New York Stock Exchange LLC Subscriber (as above)
11 Wall Street
New York, New York 10005
Attention: Director of Market Data

Subscriber and NYSE may each change its address by written notice to the other. Subscriber shall give NYSE prompt written notice of any change in (a) the Subscriber information listed above, (b) any other information provided to NYSE in connection with initiating the receipt of any Type of Market Data, or (c) any description provided pursuant to Paragraph 15(d).

SECTION 2: SPECIAL PROVISIONS

This Part II applies only to the extent that Subscriber's activity or equipment falls within the scope of one or more of Paragraphs 14 through 16.

14. SECURITIES PROFESSIONALS: FURNISHING DATA TO CUSTOMERS AND BRANCH OFFICES

(a) SCOPE-This Paragraph 14 applies if Subscriber is a securities professional, such as a registered broker-dealer or investment adviser, and is an exception to Paragraphs 5(a), 5(b) and 5(c).

(b) LIMITED PROVISION OF DATA-Solely in the regular course of its securities business, Subscriber may occasionally furnish limited amounts of Market Data to its customers and clients and to its branch offices. Subscriber may so furnish Market Data to its customers and clients who are not on Subscriber's premises solely (i) in written advertisements, educational material, sales literature or similar written communications, or (ii) during telephonic voice communication not entailing the use of computerized voice synthesization or similar technology. Subscriber may so furnish Market Data to its branch offices solely (i) as provided in the preceding sentence, or (ii) through manual entry of the data over its teletype network. Subscriber shall not permit any customer or client to take physical possession of Subscriber Equipment. Subscriber shall abide by any additional limitations that NYSE specifies in writing.

15. REPORTING: RECORDS: EQUIPMENT DESCRIPTION

(a) SCOPE-This Paragraph 15 applies whenever an authorized vendor cannot know (e.g., by virtue of installing equipment or recognizing electronically a unique device identifier) all information necessary to bill Subscriber for applicable charge(s). For example, this Paragraph 15 typically applies to (i) Subscriber Devices not leased from NYSE or an authorized vendor, (ii) portable Subscriber Devices and Subscriber Devices that use portable components (e.g., software) to receive Market Data and (iii) Subscriber's receipt of Market Data through synthesized voice responses over telephones.

(b) REPORTING-Subscriber shall furnish to NYSE in writing such information, in such form and at such times, as NYSE may reasonably specify from time to time to permit billing of Subscriber for applicable charge(s). However, if an authorized vendor provides Market Data to any Subscriber Device, Subscriber shall furnish information regarding the device to the vendor instead of NYSE unless NYSE notifies Subscriber otherwise in writing.

(c) RECORDS-Subscriber shall maintain the records upon which it bases its reporting for two years following the period to which the records relate. Solely to monitor Subscriber's compliance with this Paragraph 15, authorized representatives of NYSE may examine and verify those records at any reasonable time in the presence of Subscriber's officials.

(d) EQUIPMENT DESCRIPTIONS-Upon NYSE's written request, Subscriber shall provide NYSE with a description acceptable to NYSE of any Subscriber Equipment that an authorized vendor or an Authorizing SRO does not supply.

(e) INDEMNIFICATION-Subscriber shall indemnify and hold harmless each Authorizing SRO from and against any liability, loss or damages caused by (i) any inaccuracy in or omission from, (ii) Subscriber's failure to furnish or to keep, or (iii) Subscriber's delay in furnishing or keeping, any report or record that this Paragraph 15 requires. Subscriber shall do so even if Subscriber depends on information from a third party and the third party caused the inaccuracy, omission, failure or delay. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if NYSE determines that, as a consequence of any such inaccuracy, omission, failure or delay, applicable Subscriber charges were not billed when incurred, Subscriber may be billed for those charges and Subscriber shall promptly pay those charges plus any applicable tax.

16. EQUIPMENT SUPPLIED BY AUTHORIZING SROS

(a) SCOPE: DEFINITION This Paragraph 16 applies to Subscriber Equipment that one or more Authorizing SROs supply ("SRO Equipment").

(b) OWNERSHIP-The Authorizing SRO(s) or their supplier(s) own SRO Equipment. Subscriber shall not relocate, remove or alter SRO Equipment, or attach to SRO Equipment any equipment other than authorized equipment that an authorized vendor supplies, without NYSE's written consent. Subscriber shall return SRO Equipment in the same condition as it was when installed except for normal wear and tear and for failures for which the Authorizing SROs are responsible under Paragraph 16(d).

(c) ACCESS TO PREMISES-Subscriber shall assure that authorized representatives of the Authorizing SRO's and of their suppliers and service contractors may install, repair, maintain, relocate and replace SRO Equipment, and may remove any SRO Equipment that Subscriber no longer wants or to which it is no longer entitled, at any reasonable time.

(d) SITE PREPARATION AND MAINTENANCE-Subscriber shall prepare the site for SRO Equipment in a manner acceptable to the Authorizing SROs and shall bear all costs of providing adequate space and power. The Authorizing SROs shall maintain SRO Equipment subject to applicable charges. Maintenance includes repair or replacement of failed SRO Equipment and parts as necessary. Extraordinary charges may apply if Subscriber caused the failure.

(e) WARRANTY AND SCOPE OF LIABILITY-THE AUTHORIZING SROS PROVIDE NO WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. Paragraph 16(d) sets forth the Authorizing SROs' entire liability for performance of SRO Equipment. The Authorizing SROs' liability to Subscriber for any liability, loss or damages relating to SRO Equipment other than for the cost of maintaining, repairing or replacing SRO Equipment, whether based in contract, in tort (including negligence and strict liability) or any other theory, shall in the aggregate not exceed the lesser of (i) $1000 or (ii) the total charges to Subscriber under this Agreement for the period preceding the breach or injury. The foregoing limitations do not apply to personal injury claims. In no event shall any Authorizing SRO be liable (i) for any indirect, incidental, special, consequential or punitive liability, loss or damages relating to SRO Equipment, regardless of the form of the action and foreseeability of the liability, loss or damages, or (ii) for any liability, loss or damages due to any "force majeure" (see Paragraph 6) or for any other cause beyond the reasonable control of the Authorizing SRO.

Interest shall be due from the date of the invoice to the time that the amount(s) that are due have been paid. From time to time, and no more than once in any twelve (12) month period unless necessary due to suspected material non-compliance with this Agreement, NASDAQ, or its designee, may review Subscriber's: (i) records relating to the Information; (ii) reports and payments relating to the Information; and (iii) System and Service (and all instruments and apparatus used in connection therewith). For avoidance of doubt, NASDAQ shall not access, examine, observe, review or in any way gain disclosure to any information of Subscriber, which is protected under applicable banking secrecy regulations. NASDAQ will make reasonable efforts to provide at least thirty (30) days advance written notice of the audit, unless the audit is scheduled due to suspected material non-compliance. The audit shall occur during NASDAQ Market normal business hours, and conducted in locations where, as applicable, Distributor's records are kept, Subscriber's System is located, and/or Subscriber's uses the Information. NASDAQ shall comply with Subscriber's security policies while performing the audit which are provided to NASDAQ in advance in writing.

NASDAQ shall endeavor to provide Subscriber with a preliminary audit response within ninety (90) days following the completion of any audit. NASDAQ shall discuss the outcome of any preliminary audit response in good faith with Subscriber or, at Subscriber's election, with Subscriber's designee.

d. After receipt of the preliminary audit response, Subscriber may elect, at Subscriber's sole cost and expense, to conduct a subsequent review. This subsequent review shall be completed and submitted to NASDAQ within ninety (90) days after the preliminary audit response is received by Subscriber.

e. If NASDAQ and Subscriber are not able to reach agreement concerning the preliminary audit response nor the subsequent review within: (i) sixty (60) days of Subscriber's submission or the subsequent review; or (ii) one hundred fifty (150) days of Subscriber's receipt of the preliminary audit response, provided that NASDAQ has proceeded with such examination and audit in good faith in accordance with the provisions hereof, then NASDAQ's determination (the "Final Audit") shall be deemed conclusive.

f. If the Final Audit determines an underreporting, underpayment or other financial non-compliance with this Agreement (and/or discloses additional underreported or underpaid amounts or other financial noncompliance), then such amounts shall be remitted to NASDAQ, together with applicable interest within sixty (60) days of the completion of the Final Audit. If Subscriber fails to remit such additional amounts to NASDAQ by the end of this sixty (60) day cure period, NASDAQ may upon advance notice to Subscriber, terminate as provided in Section 12 of this Agreement.

g. For any underreporting, underpayment or other financial non-compliance that is a result of a good faith error by Subscriber, Subscriber's liability shall be limited to unpaid fees, together with interest, for the three (3) years preceding the earlier of the date that: (i) Subscriber; (ii) Subscriber's auditors; or (iii) NASDAQ first knew or determined that such underreporting, underpayment or other financial noncompliance has occurred, plus any costs and expenses as set forth in Section 5(h).

i. If the Final Audit reveals any material non-financial non-compliance with the NASDAQ Requirements, Subscriber shall submit all applicable materials demonstrating compliance with the NASDAQ Requirements, where reasonably practicable, within one hundred fifty (150) days after receipt of the preliminary audit response. If Subscriber fails to demonstrate compliance during this cure period, NASDAQ may, in its discretion at any time, with prior notice to Subscriber, terminate as provided in Section 12 of this Agreement.

j. If the Final Audit discloses an overpayment, then NASDAQ will apply the overpayment for the sixty(60) days prior to the end of the period being reviewed as a credit against amounts due from Subscriber.

k. If Subscriber's payment of fees for Information is fixed, and does not fluctuate with the number of Reportable Units, NASDAQ will, in lieu of an audit, request relevant information or documentation related to Subscriber's use of the Information; provided, however, that NASDAQ shall retain the right, with reasonable Notice to Subscriber, during normal business hours, to conduct an audit on a confidential basis of any relevant documentation of Subscriber to ensure that Subscriber's use of the Information conforms to the NASDAQ Requirements. Such audit may only take place once per calendar year and only if such audit is deemed reasonably necessary by NASDAQ due to suspected noncompliance by Subscriber with the material provisions of this Agreement.

6. SYSTEM.

Subscriber acknowledges that NASDAQ, in its sole discretion, may from time-to-time make modifications to its system or the Information. Such modifications may require corresponding changes to be made in Distributor's Service. Changes or the failure to make timely changes by Distributor or Subscriber may sever or affect Subscriber's access to or use of the Information. NASDAQ shall not be responsible for such effects. NASDAQ does not endorse or approve any equipment, Distributor or Distributor's Service.

7. EXCLUSIVE REMEDY.

NASDAQ shall endeavor to offer the Information as promptly and accurately as is reasonably practicable. In the event that the Information is not available as a result of failure by NASDAQ to perform its obligations under this Agreement, NASDAQ will endeavor to correct any such failure. If the Information is not available, is delayed, is interrupted, is incomplete, is not accurate or is otherwise materially affected for a continuous period of four (4) hours or more during the time that NASDAQ regularly transmits the Information due to the fault of NASDAQ (except for a reason permitted in this Agreement or in NASDAQ's agreement with the Distributor), Subscriber's or any other Person's exclusive remedy against NASDAQ shall be: a. If Subscriber or any other Person continues to receive the Information or any other data and/or information offered by NASDAQ, a prorated month's credit of any monies due, if any, for the affected Information directly to NASDAQ from Subscriber or, if applicable, from said other Person, for the period at issue; or b. If Subscriber or any other Person no longer receives either the Information or any other data and/or information offered by NASDAQ, a prorated month's refund of any monies due for the affected Information directly to NASDAQ from Subscriber or, if applicable, from said other Person, for the period at issue. Such credit or refund shall, if applicable, be requested in writing to NASDAQ with all pertinent details. Beyond the warranties stated in this section, there are no other warranties of any kind — express, implied, statutory (including without limitation, timeliness, truthfulness, sequence, completeness, accuracy, freedom from interruption), implied warranties arising from trade usage, course of dealing, course of performance or the implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular use or purpose.

8. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

a. Except as may otherwise be set forth herein, NASDAQ shall not be liable to Subscriber, its Distributor or any other Person for indirect, special, punitive, consequential or incidental loss or damage (including, but not limited to, trading losses, loss of anticipated profits, loss by reason of shutdown in operation or increased expenses of operation, cost of cover or other indirect loss or damage) of any nature arising from any cause whatsoever, even if NASDAQ has been advised of the possibility of such damages. b. NASDAQ shall not be liable to Subscriber or any other Person for any unavailability, interruption, delay, incompleteness or inaccuracy of the Information that lasts less than four (4) continuous hours during the time that NASDAQ regularly transmits the Information or if the Information is materially affected for less than four (4) continuous hours during the time that NASDAQ regularly transmits the Information. c. If NASDAQ is for any reason held liable to Subscriber or to any other Person, whether in tort or in contract, the liability of NASDAQ within a single year of the Agreement (one year from the effective date of the Agreement) is limited to an amount of Subscriber's damages that are actually incurred by Subscriber in reasonable reliance (combined with the total of all claims or losses of Subscriber's Distributor and any other Person claiming through, on behalf of or as harmed by Subscriber) and which amount does not exceed the lesser of: i. For Subscriber or any other person that continues to receive the Information or any other data and/or Information offered by NASDAQ, a prorated month's credit of any monies due directly to NASDAQ from Subscriber or, if applicable, from any other Person, for the Information at issue during the period at issue, or if Subscriber or any other Person no longer receives either the Information or any other data and/or information offered by NASDAQ, a refund of any monies due directly to NASDAQ from Subscriber or, if applicable, from any other Person, for the Information at issue during the period at issue; or ii. $500. d. This section shall not relieve NASDAQ, Subscriber or any other Person from liability for damages that result from their own gross negligence or willful tortious misconduct or from personal injury or wrongful death claims. e. Subscriber and NASDAQ understand and agree that the terms of this section reflect a reasonable allocation of risk and limitation of liability.

9. DISCLAIMERS OF WARRANTIES.

NASDAQ and its third-party information providers make no warranties of any kind — express, implied or statutory (including without limitation, timeliness, truthfulness, sequence, completeness, accuracy, freedom from interruption), any implied warranties arising from trade usage, course of dealing, course of performance or the implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular use or purpose or noninfringement.

10. THIRD-PARTY INFORMATION PROVIDERS' LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

NASDAQ's third-party information providers shall have no liability for any damages for the accuracy of or for delays or omissions in any of the Information provided by them, whether direct or indirect, lost profits, special or consequential damages of the Subscriber or any other Person seeking relief through Subscriber, even if the third-party information providers have been advised of the possibility of such damages. In no event will the liability of the third-party information providers or their affiliates to Subscriber or any other Person seeking relief through Subscriber pursuant to any cause of action, whether in contract, tort or otherwise, exceed the fee paid by Subscriber or any other Person seeking relief through Subscriber, as applicable.

11. CLAIMS AND LOSSES.

Subscriber will indemnify NASDAQ and hold NASDAQ and its employees, officers, directors and other agents harmless from any and all Claims or Losses imposed on, incurred by or asserted as a result of or relating to: (a) any noncompliance by Subscriber with the terms and conditions hereof; (b) any third-party actions related to Subscriber's receipt and use of the Information, whether authorized or unauthorized under the Agreement. Each party warrants and represents and will indemnify and hold harmless (and in every case, NASDAQ shall be permitted to solely defend and settle) another party (including NASDAQ) and their officers, directors, employees and other agents, against any Claims or Losses arising from, involving or relating to a claim of infringement or other violation of an intellectual property right by the indemnifying party, its actions or omissions, equipment or other property. This right is conditioned on the indemnified party giving prompt written notice to the indemnifying party (as does not prejudice the defense) of the Claims or Losses and providing cooperation in the defense of the Claims or Losses (without waiver of attorney-client, workproduct or other legal privilege, or disclosure of information legally required to be kept confidential).

12. TERMINATION.

Subscriber acknowledges that NASDAQ, when required to do so in fulfillment of statutory obligations, may by notice to Distributor unilaterally limit or terminate the right of any or all Persons to receive or use the Information and that Distributor will immediately comply with any such notice and will terminate or limit the furnishing of the Information and confirm such compliance by notice to NASDAQ. Any affected Person will have available to it such procedural protections as are provided by the Act and applicable rules thereunder. In addition to terminations permitted under the Distributor's agreement, this Agreement may be terminated by Subscriber with thirty (30) days written notice to Distributor and by NASDAQ with thirty (30) days written notice either to Distributor or Subscriber. NASDAQ may also alter any term of this Agreement with ninety (90) days written notice either to Distributor or Subscriber, and any use after such date is deemed acceptance of the new terms. In the event of Subscriber breach, discovery of the untruth of any representation of Subscriber, or where directed by the SEC in its regulatory authority, NASDAQ may terminate this Agreement with not less than three (3) days written notice to Subscriber provided either by NASDAQ or Distributor.

13. AMENDMENTS/AGREEMENT.

Except as may otherwise be set forth in this Agreement, NASDAQ may alter any term or condition of this Subscriber Agreement on ninety (90) days notice to Distributor, and any use of the Information after such date is deemed acceptance of the new term or condition. The means of notifying Subscriber of such new term or condition may include, but not be limited to, emailing such term or condition to the applicable Distributor or posting such alteration on the NASDAQTrader website or a successor site shall be as per the Summary. No failure on the part of NASDAQ, Distributor or Subscriber to exercise, no delay in exercising, and no course of dealing with respect to any right, power, or privilege under the Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right, power, or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power, or privilege under this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided herein, no provision of this Agreement may be amended, modified or waived. If any of the provisions of this Agreement or application thereof to any individual, entity or circumstance is held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such terms or provisions to individuals, entities or circumstances other than those as to which they are held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby and each such term and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.
